Enjoy a car-free day out from Preston, Lancaster or Carnforth with Northern to the Ravenglass & Eskdale Railway.

There are views of Morecambe Bay and the beautiful Furness peninsula before reaching Barrow-in-Furness. You then continue along the Cumbrian Coast line to Ravenglass - the Lake District National Park's only coastal village. Change trains here for the Ravenglass & Eskdale Railway and take a steam journey of 7 miles to the foot of England's highest mountain.

For every adult ticket sold from Preston, Lancaster or Carnforth to the Ravenglass & Eskdale Railway, £1 will be donated to the Railway Children charity. www.railwaychildren.org.uk
